1. The Soviets are reported to be operating a large underground arms and ammunition plant about six kilometers from Chocianow (Kotzenau) (052/B64), northwest of Liegnitz. The factory, which was built by the Germans, is located in a woods, and is surrounded by a double barbed wire enclosure. Poles are not permitted to approach it.
2. The factory is said to be working "at full capacity", employing German P.P.s. Columns of covered trucks leave the factory at night with strong military escort, and proceed in the direction of the Russian Zone of Germany.
